DETAILED ACTIONClaim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 12-14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 12 and 16, the limitation of "clear uninterrupted adhesive layer .. a negligible thickness" renders the claim indefinite because it is not clear what the scope of the phrase "negligible thickness" defines.

In claims 13 and 14, the limitation of "no evident reflections when looking through the optical stack of laminated removable lenses" renders the claims indefinite the term "evident" reflection is at best relative and not clearly discernible with respect to the prior art.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 10 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6536045. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each reference claims at least the limitations the present invention's claim 10.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 10, 14 and 16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Janssen et al. (6461709).

Janssen discloses, as in claims 10, 14 and 16, an optical stack (see fig. 1) comprising a plurality of superposed removable lenses (16 and 18) adhesively (20) affixed to one another; each said removable lens having no evident reflection when looking through being held to each successive lens with a clear uninterrupted adhesive layer of negligible thickness interposed between each said removable lens (col. 14, lines 37-51);

each said lens having a removable tab portion (21) on at least one end which does not have any adhesive layer on either side of said tab portion such that when the optical stack of laminated removable lenses and expose a clean lens directly underneath said removed top lens (see figure 7; col. 14, lines 55-60).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 11, 15 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Janssen et al. (6461709).

Janssen discloses the claimed invention except as described above except for a second removable tab on the opposite end as recited in claims 11, 15 and 17. This would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made since it is known that an additional of a structure for grasping would make such device more easily to grasp by the user.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 10/27/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments fail to comply with 37 CFR 1.111(b) because they amount to a general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references.

Applicant's argument that the Janssen does not teach "a clear uninterrupted adhesive layer interposed between each removable lens” is unfounded. Since applicant’s claim is open ended (uses comprises), the requirement to meet this limitation would be for an adhesive layer to merely be between (still interposed) each removable lens and Janssen teach this. It appears that applicant is making a close ended argument where nothing else alternates between the lens and the adhesive and perhaps replacing “comprising” with “consisting” would capture such limitation and scope. Applicant’s argument that “there are no evident reflections when looking through the optical stack or laminated removable lenses” does not differentiate the present invention from the prior art with structure of any sort, but relies on functional limitation which is considered relative (evident).

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
